++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry tonight. Some showers developing on Friday, locally heavy.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely cloudy night, with perhaps a few outbreaks of light rain or drizzle near the coast but some clear spells likely in the west, with a chance of mist and fog patches in any prolonged ones. A mild night. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Any early cloud will readily lift and break, followed by sunny spells for most. Some scattered showers in the afternoon, perhaps heavy in Lincolnshire later. Warm. A dry evening. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Often warm by day, with bright or sunny spells but unsettled with showers, these widespread and locally heavy. Mist and low cloud may affect coasts. Fewer showers on Monday.
